

Challenges faced by warehouse operators

- Warehouse operators and 3PL providers lack warehouse management solutions which are suitable for their daily operational needs and offered at an affordable price.
- Using manual Excel spreadsheets to track fast-moving inventories is cumbersome and error-prone. Incorrect inventories cause lost sales.

Major Benefits

- Affordable initial cost for core functions
- Reduced inventory
- Savings in labor cost and time
- Improved space utilization
- Higher productivity
- Shorten order fulfillment times
- Improved customer satisfaction

Enquiry

- 852-2599 1700
- mktsales@tradelink.com.hk

Tradelink Warehouse Management Solution at a glance

Solution Highlights

Support B2B and B2C operation: System can supports B2B and / B2C distribution and fulfillment business.

Real time data sharing and synchronization through mobile devices: Real-time inventory data sharing from warehouse, office to end customers enhances inventory visibility and accuracy.

Use business intelligence to facilitate inventory movement: Users can preset specific putaway and picking criteria, such as Fast Moving Zone and Break-bulk Cargo First, in the system. Based on the computation using the intelligent algorithms in the system, automated storage /loading / unloading planning with instructions will be sent to handheld for warehouse workers' execution.

Document-driven workflow design: The automated document flow follows users' established business processes; avoiding the need for users to change their entrenched work habits.

Support files in excel format: Users can continue to use excel files to prepare Advance Shipment Notice and Delivery Note which can directly be imported into the system. There is no need for users to learn to use a new user interface to input the source documents. .

Auto cost calculation & estimation: With relevant charging items captured on a per client basis, Tradelink WMS can help warehouse operators to prepare bills and estimates to end customers with accuracy and ease.

Plugin module configuration: The system can support plugin modules for managing export supervised warehousing and bonded warehousing activities.

Integration with other systems: Tradelink WMS can seamlessly integrated with other Tradelink applications such as eShop. With the data inheritance feature, users can prepare other business documents and trade declarations with ease and accuracy avoiding duplicate data entry. Tradelink can also provide third-party integration services to cater for individual business needs.

Tradelink WMS is a flexible solution designed for distribution enterprises and 3PL service providers to manage the end-to-end activities across the warehouses including goods receiving, storage, picking, sortation and dispatch, with an aim to enhance inventory accuracy, productivity, on-time deliveries, forecasting.

