

Guangdong, China Customs Delegation Visited Tradelink

Led by the Head of the delegation Mr. Li Xue Qian, the Customs Chief of Panyu, Guangdong and Hong Kong Customs officials, the Guangdong Customs delegates visited Tradelink on 25 January 2008. Through the visit, the Customs officials have better understanding of Hong Kong's customs and trade matters.

During the visit, Tradelink representative introduced the business mission and key service areas of Tradelink as well as the electronic trade declaration process. The delegates expressed strong interest in e-commerce service provided by Tradelink including the DTTN platform and operations of trade declaration. In addition, the delegates had exchanged views with Tradelink on imports and exports between Guangdong and Hong Kong.

A tour to Tradelink headquarters and customer service centre was also arranged for the delegates to know the daily hotline operations of the centre.
